

This map of Indianapolis, Indiana, displays a network of major highways and local streets. Key features include:

- Highways: Interstates 65, 74, 70, and 69 are shown as thick blue lines. State Routes 31, 40, and 37 are marked with white shields.
- Streets: A grid of major roads is visible, including Meridian St, Kessler Blvd, and various numbered streets like 86th, 56th, 38th, 16th, and 10th.
- Landmarks and Locations: Labeled areas include Lebanon, Zionsville, Carmel, Noblesville, Fishers, Anderson, Plainfield, Mooresville, Martinsville, Greenwood, Franklin, and the Indianapolis International Airport (marked with a blue airplane icon).
- Fort Benjamin Harrison (Closed): A green arrow points to a specific location near the center of the city, labeled "Fort Benjamin Harrison (Closed)".
- Other Features: The map shows rail lines (CSX Transportation, Conrail), water bodies, and various smaller roads like Rockville Rd, Brookville Rd, and Southport Rd.

